July looks like a great month to be in Granville Co!

Alive After Five, Thursday, August 20 Downtown Creedmoor Volunteers Needed!!

The 2nd ALIVE AFTER FIVE event of 2015 will be Thursday evening, August 20th, 5:30 'til 8:30 in downtown Creedmoor. The Chamber's Board is pleased to partner with the City of Creedmoor to sponsor this exciting event.

The entertainers for that night will be THE MAGNIFICENTS, who are from the Burlington area. According to their Facebook page, "The Magnificents Band has a wealth of live playing experience in varied styles of music, including classic soul, beach, top forty and dance.

The Magnificents Band will play at Alive After Five on August 20th!

Originally formed in the late 60's, the latest edition of the Magnificents Band was brought to life in the beginning of 2006 and has realized a tremendous amount of success in a very short time. The Magnificents Band has a wealth of live playing experience in varied styles of music. They have four distinctly different lead vocalists and some of the best musicians around. They always enjoy interacting with the audience and strive to make every gig a memorable one for all."

LEADERSHIP GRANVILLE

Class of 2015 - 16

Participants are requested for the upcoming Leadership Granville program, which will begin mid-September and end with graduation mid-April. Individuals with a sincere and genuine interest in future service to the community and those who have demonstrated commitment by previous community activities are encouraged to apply.

The program consists of approximately twenty sessions, most of which are evening. Session highlights include: leadership assessment and development, personal and group dynamics, county history, city-county-state governments, education, the arts, agriculture, economics-industry-small business, health services and volunteer agencies, human services, community support, tourism, judiciary and law enforcement, visiting manufacturers, farms, industries, businesses, etc.

Sponsored by the Granville County Chamber of Commerce, Granville County Schools and Vance-Granville Community College, Leadership Granville offers citizens of Granville County the opportunity to acquire knowledge of the community and develop their leadership potential. It offers new citizens an opportunity to become personally and professionally acquainted with county structure and life, which can benefit their present and future leadership.

Interested individuals should contact one of the Chamber's office locations - 124 Hillsboro St., Oxford/Wanda, 919.693.6125, wanda@granville-chamber.com or 2598 Hwy 56, Butner/Toni Anne, 919.528.4994, tawheeler@granville-chamber.com.

- The Annual NEW TEACHER BREAKFAST will be held Friday, August 14th. The Chamber will be preparing gift bags for the new teachers which will include gift items from chamber members. Be thinking of what item(s) your business would like to donate for the gift bags. We are planning on 100 new teachers. Pens, pads, coupons, koozies, jar openers - anything (especially with company name on them to advertise your business/company) will be greatly appreciated. This event will take the place of the Monthly Sunrise Forum for August. The chamber would love to have you attend!
- Many have wondered, guessed and pondered just what the former Thorndale Country Club's transformation will reveal. The Chamber's August Business-After-Hours will provide just that opportunity. Reserve Thursday evening, August 27th for Business-After-Hours at THORNDALE OAKS. More details will be forthcoming about this exciting chance to visit a new, local venue.
- The June and July heat will soon be replaced with beautiful fall weather ~ and the Chamber's annual CLUCK 'N SHUCK. This popular event will be Friday evening, October 23rd at The Red Barn. Ted's Catering is planning its usual assortment of delicious food and condiments - especially oysters and chicken. Mark your calendars now. Tickets will be available soon. The CLUCK 'N SHUCK PLANNING COMMITTEE has plans to offer cluck 'n shuck t-shirts for sale. Watch for an announcement that they are available to purchase!
