SUNRISE FORUM ~ FRIDAY, NOV. 13TH ~ 7:45 AM
BUTNER TOWN HALL ~ Hosted by The Town of Butner

The Chamber's Sunrise Forum for November will be held Friday, Nov. 13th at Butner Town Hall, Central Avenue in Butner. A very special opportunity awaits attendees – the opportunity to hear a presentation from members of the US Public Health Service who traveled to Africa during the Ebola crisis. Their presentation is entitled, “Experience Traveling to Africa to Treat and Train for the Ebola Outbreak.”

The Town of Butner invites everyone to arrive around 7:45 am and enjoy a light breakfast while visiting just prior to the program beginning.

The Chamber expresses appreciation to Complex Warden Kenny Atkinson, Federal Correctional Complex in Butner, for making arrangements for the US Public Health Service to present this program.

Please let a Chamber office know if you wish to attend. Thanks!

Kudos to GRANVILLE HEALTH SYSTEM

For the sixth consecutive year, GRANVILLE HEALTH SYSTEM has been named to the Community Value Index (CVI) 5-Star Hospital list. This ranking measures the financial value hospitals bring to their service areas and places. Granville Health System is within the top 20% of hospitals in the US in providing financial value to the community they serve. CONGRATULATIONS!
