

Leadership Granville begins in the Fall and is an eight-month program that concludes with a graduation ceremony. Most sessions are field trips and presentations held during the workday. A class project is also required by the end of the program.

Those interested in assuming leadership positions with their organization and/or community are encouraged to apply.

All applicants will be reviewed by a selection committee, with those selected for the program being notified in writing. A tuition fee of $400 is due before the first class begins and includes all class materials and activity fees.

Enrollment is limited. A limited number of scholarships are also available.

Please return completed applications by Aug. 6, 2021 to:

What is Leadership Granville?

Leadership Granville is an educational program designed to offer leadership training and a broader knowledge of the county to its citizens. Through this program, participants have the opportunity to acquire knowledge of the community and become personally and professionally acquainted with the county’s structure and life, while developing leadership skills.

Objectives of the program include:

- to select highly-qualified emerging leaders who are most likely to “give back” to their community;
- to provide skills in problem-solving, group dynamics and future planning;
- to study community issues, perspectives and functions;
- to create direct lines of communication between participants and current community leaders.
- to communicate the benefits of Leadership Granville to the community.
